Jacqueline Gon, Behchoko

Jacqueline Gon has been an active participant in every youth activity in the community of Behchoko. She is a vibrant, willing, and eager participant in all community events. Jacqueline has dedicated the past year to Team NWT for the 2009 Canada Summer Games soccer program and has been an active role model and athlete on several teams including the senior women's volleyball, senior and junior women's soccer (indoor and outdoor), track and field, and even recreational hockey. Jacqueline also trains and competes with and against the senior men's teams. Jacqueline has showed great composure, leadership, attitude, and skill in pressure situations and is a calming influence on all of her teammates. Jacqueline could graduate this year, ahead of schedule, and has proven by example that hard work, perseverance, determination, and self-motivation are essential qualities in leading a positive lifestyle.
